

Needed Ship Is Trapped By Floods

Destined for Freight Service
In Far North

A boat slated for use in the north has been trapped by floods.

F. W. Broderick, managing director of Northern Transportation Company Limited, said the 120-foot boat, cut into sections for shipment, is somewhere between Vancouver and Kamloops.

It is loaded on eleven freight cars.

Delay, said Mr. Broderick, represents serious loss to the company as the vessel will be required for the full navigation season.

The vessel, still unnamed, will be assembled at Waterways and launched at the Belle Rock Shipyard.

The 24-mile trip to the shipyard will have to be accomplished by portage.

Portaging the 190-ton freighter, said Mr. Broderick, is a difficult operation.

It will join the Northern Transportation fleet for service along the 1,661 mile route from Waterways to Atlatik.

It will be used for hauling oil from Norman Wells to Yellowknife.

Freight totalling 35,000 tons has already been booked for shipment along the route he said.

Most mining equipment and supplies, he added.

Little Girl Pleads For Her Daddy

Ten-year-old Valerie May Clifford, who lives in Bournemouth, England, wants to come to Canada.

She is so anxious she wrote a letter to the post-master, Edmonton, saying:

"Daddy has tried to get to Canada by Ontario emigrant but the age groups are 40-Daddy is 42 he is a Sawyer and is not afraid of hard work he has been a Sawyer for 22 years.

"He can also do farming Daddy would sell our furniture to pay his fare and send for Mummy and me later we would live in rooms till daddy sent for me."

Postmaster H. W. Gregory forwarded the letter to R. R. Moore, provincial deputy minister of economic affairs, who has written to Valerie that he will find a job for "Daddy" if he can.

"Will you please try to get Daddy a job I no he is worried, I write to you because our government is a Canada and he said there is lots of sawmills at Edmonton.

"I am ten years old and have no brothers or sisters," pleads Valerie. She explains too, "Daddy earns $4 a week here he gives Mummy 4 she has to pay 1 rent."

"Will you please answer my letter I think all Canadians are kind that's why I write to you because daddy says he has never been out of work yet if he had a job he could go to it will you try to help and please help us," Valerie's letter ends.

Assault Charges Are Dismissed

Assault charges against two miners which resulted in a $100 fine were dismissed in city police court today.

A charge of assault against William Simpson, Beverly, was withdrawn after presentation of Crown evidence.

George Houle, Beverly, claimed he was struck in the eye when pickets surrounded his car.

He was unable to identify Simpson as his assailant.

The second of the two men, Joseph Wozny, Beverly, produced evidence which proved he was a considerable distance from Houle's car when the assault took place.

Church Official Says Funds Are Inadequate

Allocation of church finances is not adequate for mission work, Rev. M. C. Macdonald, Associate Secretary of Home Mission Board, Toronto, told United Church conference delegates here today.

Laymen ministers met for the fourth day of the 24th annual conference in McDougall Church today.

One-third of pastoral charges in Canada are recipients of aid from the Home Mission, delegates were told.

For 1949 the Church has been given a $600,000 budget compared to a budget of more than one million dollars in 1928, stated Rev. Macdonald.

The Toronto churchmen reviewed problems in church organization and finances.

Minimum salaries for ministers have been raised to $1,850, according to Rev. Macdonald.

This was only possible by drawing on reserve funds, he stated.

Salaries were raised only because of the great number of vacancies in pastoral charges, he said.

Greatest problem is the shortage of workers in the church, explained Rev. Macdonald.

This year only 34 graduates will be left to fill 230 vacancies across Canada, he revealed.

More than 30 centres need new churches, he explained.

Man Pleads Guilty
To Housebreaking, Sentence Deferred

Arthur Field, no fixed address, pleaded guilty in court today to a charge of housebreaking.

He was remanded until June 1 for sentence. At that time he is also scheduled to receive sentence on two charges of forgery.

Court was told that the accused, along with two other men, now serving time, broke into the home of Howard Crossman, 10135 167 street, and stole a suit, pair of pants and two shirts.

"I am ten years old and have no brothers or sisters," pleads Valerie. She explains too, "Daddy earns $4 a week here he gives Mummy 4 she has to pay 1 rent."

"Will you please answer my letter I think all Canadians are kind that's why I write to you because daddy says he has never been out of work yet if he had a job he could go to it will you try to help and please help us," Valerie's letter ends.

Temperance Meeting Is Held at Camrose

CAMROSE, May 28.—The 36th annual convention of the Edmonton district of Alberta Women's Christian Temperance Union met in Camrose last Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Edna Grant, Vancouver, B.C., National Field Secretary, and Mrs. F. G. Grevelt, provincial president, Calgary, were honored guests of the convention and contributed greatly to its success. Mrs. Grace Knight, past national president, Edmonton, was present and was chosen to act as secretary for all sessions.

Many fine reports were presented by the officers and various department superintendents. It was the opinion of the convention that the members can act with conviction and decision from accurate facts obtained from many years of scientific research. Splendid progress is noted from work with the youth and Miss Grant and Mrs. Hendrickson received a vote of appreciation for the outstanding success they had attained in two weeks tour of many schools just completed. Miss Grant addressed the evening meeting.

GOLD MEDAL CONTEST

A gold medal contest was a pleasant feature of the meeting and the contestants from five different Sunday Schools in Camrose, received high praise from the judges. From Miss Grant and Mrs. Hendrickson received a vote of appreciation for the outstanding success they had attained in two weeks tour of many schools just completed. Miss Grant addressed the evening meeting.

Judges were Rev. Gray, Rivers, Camrose, Mrs. Hendrickson, Bardo and Mrs. D. B. Mail, Edmonton. Mrs. E. M. Bergh was in charge of the contest and Mrs. H. N. Freeman, well known teacher of music and elocution, helped to prepare four of the contestants.

Saturday sessions were held in the Lutheran Church.

Embankments Are Thrown Up To Protect Peace River Town

PEACE RIVER, May 28.—Several bulldozers and Letourneau machines worked all night Wednesday as did about 60 men piling up an embankment along the Harmon and Peace Rivers in an attempt to stem the steadily rising waters of the Peace which had been rising approximately one half to an inch each hour. Thursday, water had reached a point at least a foot above the original banks.

Several residents have moved, their belongings to higher ground. Should the embankment give way or the waters continue to rise much further, the Peace River Motor, Grip and Humphreys undertaking parlor and a considerable number of residences will be surrounded. At 10 o'clock Thursday morning only three or four houses had been surrounded.

Heavy embankments have been and are being pushed up along the mouth of the Peace creek where the Northern Alberta Dairy Pool creamery was almost at waters edge. The McKenzie Transport warehouse is jutting over the water which has risen 19 inches in 22 hours and the only encouraging sign of a dike is from Fort St. John which indicates the Peace at that point held its own Wednesday night.

Farther down at Duvagan the rise is continuing so that it would be approximately 22 hours before the crest at Fort St. John reaches this point. Driftwood in ever increasing quantities covers the new plans for the laying of the sewage disposal and waterworks.

The number of entries has been growing steadily over the past few years and this year is again expected to be a record breaker for the number of entries.

New Equipment For Fire Fighting

WESTLOCK, May 28.—Fire believed to have started from a wiring short circuit in the attic completely gutted the interior of a house owned and occupied by A. Zacek recently. Speedy and prompt action by the Westlock volunteer fire fighters held the blaze to the interior of the structure.

Mr. Zacek, who was alone in the house at the time of the fire, suffered loss of his business premises last winter when fire destroyed the barber shop and dry cleaning establishment on First Street and the F. Merryweather implement agency.

Firefighters used the new water system in fighting the fire for the first time, hooking their hoses up to the hydrant by the Red Head garage, and using the truck pumps to boost the pressure to the required level.

Rights of Minorities

As A People, The Only Thing We Are Intolerant of Is Intolerance

"Democracy" simply means—Rule by the People. A fair, democratic government must conduct itself in the interests of all the people... all the time. That means that minorities, who act within the spirit and letter of the law of the land are to be accorded full rights as Canadians.

In our democracy, we do not ride roughshod over the views, hopes and wishes of minorities. We look upon their aspirations with tolerance, understanding and sympathy. If we fail to do so, we might well be suspect of totalitarian aims. We can err, we have erred at times; but, it has been error of judgement, not of intent, and when wrong is done, our sense of fair play rights that wrong.

As Canadians, we should be liberal in our attitude... liberal in our views... liberal in our acts. This attitude, emphatically, does not apply to those in our midst who render life service to democracy, while, at the same time, prompt by speech and act to overthrow our government by force. For these latter, there is no room in our free land. But, to the good people who come to our land as strangers... shy, bewildered at their new-found freedom, these we must respect and lend a hand that they may better understand our way of life.

The New Canadians may differ from us in the clothes they wear... differ in speech or accent... customs and habits. They may have (to us) odd-sounding names. That last should not bother us. Our rolls of honour in both wars are studded with the names of the fallen whose fathers came from other lands.

Yes, let us ever bear in mind that in Canada, the emphasis is on the individual... the minorities, too, are individuals. These we shall guard against intolerance, bigotry and discrimination. For only by zealous watch over their rights can we continue to hold the respect of the world of free men... champions of freedom and the

An RCAF mercy flight to a lake about 60 miles north of Fort Vermilion Thursday brought a 46-year-old Treaty Indian to Edmonton for treatment to a badly injured foot.

One of the trio in the cabin walked 60 miles to Fort Vermilion for aid and word was sent to Edmonton.

It took the Indian two days and one night to walk the 60 miles through heavily wooded country.

The RCAF float-equipped Norseman, carrying Dr. Joseph H. Campbell, left here Thursday morning and returned at 6 p.m. the same day with the injured Indian.

Many Problems Confront Jasper Place Community

Wartime slackers used to fight for the country when we

Some 6,000 residents of West Jasper Place feel something like those reluctant "patriots," but in their case the situation is reversed.

West Jasper Place is a unique among Canadian communities. Technically, the people live in the country but to outward appearance they're modern city dwellers.

There are surveyed and numbered streets and avenues, a small business section, with some 50 stores and shops, fine schools and churches, playgrounds and most other appearances of city life in Jasper Place.

SHOW RURAL AFFINITY

Things that remind West Jasper Place residents of their rural affinity are absence of a fire department, police force, water mains and sewage. The community boasts about a dozen automatic telephones, most phones are on rural lines. Natural gas is piped to some homes.

Electricity for street and residential lighting is supplied by the Calgary Power Co.

If West Jasper Place were incorporated it would be Alberta's fifth largest city. Yet it has no mayor or council. Most of the community's growth has come in the past three years.

Affairs of this flourishing and still-expanding community are administered by the council for Municipal District of Stony Plain No. 84, Division I.

wisecrack: "Why should we live in the city?"

The district council consists of five councillors elected for three-year terms.

J. M. Stone, contractor residing in West Jasper Place, is representative for that community.

STRANGE SITUATION

The strange situation of a whole countryside "going city" presents Mr. Stone with headaches galore. Last winter, after two bad fires, West Jasper Place tried to solve the problem of fire protection.

Edmonton's fire department cannot fight fires outside the city limits unless by special arrangement through contract.

Some businessmen and private residents have agreements with the city to obtain fire-fighting service on payment of $25 per acre.

Most residents feel they cannot afford this service.

The community has no fire-fighting equipment of its own. Several meetings between city officials and the municipal district council were held but no agreement could be reached satisfactory to all.

The community hoped to purchase a former RCAF fire truck but the municipality couldn't divert money from taxes.

Tax money must go for local improvements, such as roads. So the dread menace of fire still hangs over most of West Jasper Place.

Councillor Stone is determined to achieve two objectives in the near future. One is a street grading machine for West Jasper Place only and an engineer drainage survey of all streets.

At present street grading must depend on the availability of Stony Plain municipal district equipment. This is most unsatisfactory to West Jasper Place, he states.

Because of poor drainage Jasper

Place residents have been plagued year after year with spring floods.

West Jasper Place has a live wire organization in its 300-member Ratepayers' Association.

R. F. Lambert is president.

Biggest single problem of a city living in the country is financing, according to Councillor Stone.

Municipal district funds are limited. Although government grants help they fall far below requirements for a community where 2,000 children attend elementary, intermediate and high school.

West Jasper Place families pay heavy school taxes—about $75 per child on the average.

Many residents would like to bring the community into the city but Edmonton doesn't want it, Mr. Stone said.

"We have thought of incorporating as a town but business sources of tax revenue would be few and we might lose much of our government grant," he added.

East of 149 street, marking the western city limits lies the suburban community of Jasper Place.

But nobody could tell where the city ends and the country starts except for the bus line terminus.

Lives of the people of the city and country communities intermingle.

Both city and country residents belong to the Jasper Place Community League of which Frank Makepeace, chief engineer of Radio Station CFRR, is president.

Sports flourish in both communities. Jasper Place hockey, softball and baseball teams being prominent competitors in city leagues for many years.

Although there are many problems incidental to the country "going city" residents will tell you it's fun living on a half and half basis.

Charterless City Of Jasper Place

Two Communities Are Unique With Nearly 10,000 Population

Jasper Place, in Edmonton's far west end, and its sister country community of West Jasper Place, form a unique unchartered city of nearly 10,000.

More than 3,000 people live in Jasper Place while West Jasper Place in the Municipal District of Stony Plain, has 6,000 residents.

Like Topsy of Uncle Tom's Cabin the sister Jasper Place communities have just "grown." And they're both still growing.

STARTED IN 1906
It was away back in 1906 that Jasper Place started to take form.

The Western Land Co. Ltd., headed by the late Dr. Harry R. Smith, purchased the west half of section 35 at $100 per acre. The 320 acres were subdivided into city blocks and sold.

The following year the east half of the section was purchased, subdivided and sold.

Then came a long period of study planning. Roads and bridges were built. A school was built and the community attracted residents.

PIONEER STILL THERE
One of the early pioneers, still residing in Jasper Place was C. R. Luff.

Other oldtimers in the community are David Porter, Cecil Clark, Charles W. Brett and H. P. Brown.

Jasper Place had the distinction of organizing Edmonton's first community league back in the First World War year of 1917.

George M. Hall was the league's first president. H. P. Brown was chief organizer.

The league erected a sign at Stony Plain Road and 142 street declaring the purpose of the league was to create a community of happy homes.

One of Edmonton's beauty spots, Capital Hill, is located in Jasper Place.

FAMED FOR SPORTS
Jasper Place has been famed for its sports organizations for many years.

Hockey, tennis and many other sports have flourished under the guiding hand of C. R. Luff.

The community has produced many championship hockey teams.

Have you ever wondered what kind of man lies behind the lovable grease-paint face of a circus clown?

Last night The Bulletin interviewed some of the baggy-trousered zany now appearing at the Edmonton arena with the Shriner circus.

There are 10 of the grease-painted laugh-getters with the Shriner circus.

For every performance they "go" up their faces and dress up in outlandish clothes to make people laugh and forget their troubles just for a little while.

They come from all over the North American continent, they originally all had other vocations, but they've got one big thing in common—

WOULDN'T TRADE
They wouldn't trade show business for anything else in the world.

Most of them were born into the circus.

Some used to be tight-wire walkers, some were tumblers, one of them used to have a bicycle act in vaudeville.

Most of them are fellows who started to slow down in their original acts, loved the circus too much to leave it, and took up clowning.

Some examples, take clowns Dick Lewis and Gabby Dekoe, of Los Angeles and New York respectively.

"Some people want to be doctors, or lawyers, but we want to be clowns," they say.

Of the 10 clowns with the Shriner circus, Dick is the youngest—38 years. "Oldest" is the active policeman in the act, Joe Lewis (no relation to Dick), who is in his "middle fifties."

RUGGED LIFE
Dick Lewis was originally a railroad man, but took up the vocation of making people laugh in preference.

He has a wife and three children in Los Angeles whom he hasn't seen since the day after Christmas, because he's been on the road since then.

Just to show you how show business gets in the blood, Dick, having his 14-year-old daughter take ballet lessons in preparation for stage life.

Even if she doesn't continue with ballet, Dick told The Bulletin, her

CALGARY, May 28. — (CP) — Henry Hoffner, Calgary post office carrier, yesterday pleaded guilty in police court to stealing three letters containing money from the mails. He was remanded until Saturday for sentence.

Post office officials said three test letters containing marked money were found opened in Hoffner's mail bag and the money was found in his possession.

He used to do an acrobatic act in the Barnum and Bailey circus, until in 1935 his partner in the act broke his neck somersaulting over an elephant.

Then he turned to clowning, and has never left it.

Other clowns with the circus have had pasts just as varied.

But now their job is to make people laugh, and they travel all over the continent doing it.

When the Shriner circus closes here Saturday night, the 10 clowns will split up their act to join various open-air shows in Canada and the U.S.

Dick and Gabby and three of their cohorts will join the Thrill Circus in Houston, Texas.

Although they like Canada, they're not going to be sad about returning to the U.S.

For they have found—the hard, cold way—that everything but meals in Canada is more expensive than in the U.S.

Which isn't funny even to a clown.

Aussie Govt. Seeks Power To Maintain War Control

SYDNEY, Australia, May 28. — (CP) — Australians will be asked to cast votes tomorrow for or against a referendum introduced by the Chifley government seeking powers to continue wartime controls over rents and prices.

But regardless of the outcome of the referendum, present legislation declared the federal government's provides that these controls will remain in effect at least until the end of 1949. Both the government and the opposition believe basic controls should stay on till supply catches up with demand.

The government wants to change the constitution to allow these controls to be written into it for "as long as necessary." The opposition maintains that the states (provinces) have the ability to control rents without granting increased powers to the federal government.

Prime Minister Chifley, summing up his case for the "yes" vote, said last night that price control is necessary to put a brake on inflation.

"If we take off price control we will have high prices. . . . Wage and salary-earners will find the value of their pay envelopes depleted and will legitimately claim increases. . . . Wages will go up and prices will chase them."

Opposition Leader Robert G. Menzies, winding up the "no" case, the referendum, present legislation declared the federal government's provides that these controls will remain in effect at least until the end of 1949. # • Legion Continues To Bar Draftees

Convention Places on Record Its Views on Preparedness

By Douglas How

SASKATOON, May 28.—(CP)—Veterans of two world wars, after a realistic appraisal of the possibility of a third, have placed on record the steps they feel Canada should take to prepare for any eventuality.

From days of plain-spoken debate has emerged the program which will guide the Canadian Legion's policy for the next two years.

At its 12th biennial national convention, which ended yesterday, the legion:

- 1—Refused admission to NRMA troops called up in the Second World War and who served in an actual theatre of war.
- 2—Recommended that Canadian youth be given compulsory military training in reserve forces.
- 3—Asked the federal government to study legislative curbs against Communist subversive activities, "without unduly curbing our normal civil rights."

SPIRITED DEBATE

These recommendations aroused the most spirited discussion of any of the measures put before the convention, opened May 24 by Field Marshal Viscount Alexander.

The question of admitting National Resources Mobilization Act troops to Legion membership drew from Maj.-Gen. C. B. Price of Montreal, immediate past president, the comment that it was "vulnerable" and "unworthy" to deny it. National unity would be torn.

Two delegates, George Layton of Montreal and William Radcliffe of Winnipeg, said conscripts should be allowed to join the Legion, which accepted British veterans who were conscripts.

In the angry debate, W. J. Williams of Edmonton said 500 volunteers would leave his Legion branch if the conscripts were allowed in.

A Victoria delegate, Fred Jones, asked that only those who actually saw battle be admitted.

A Kelowna, B.C. Legionnaire, R. M. Heyman, said it was the responsibility of the government, not the individual, to direct manpower.

Boes and cheers marked the proceedings. Delegates from Saskatchewan and Alberta, respectively, one a woman, opposed the entry of men "who had hidden behind the law" while women went overseas.

TOTAL MOBILIZATION

The 1,000 delegates, representing 300,000 members in 2,000 Legion branches, approved a British Columbia proposal that human, natural and industrial resources be totally mobilized in the event of war, and that women reservists be trained in peacetime.

Delegations from B.C. and Quebec won support for a resolution of the 1946 stand that youth be given full-time compulsory military training.

But the convention later approved the contention of J. R. Kidston of Vernon, B.C., that if the Legion asked the government to order full-time compulsory training, the government would merely reply that facilities were inadequate for it.

Consequently the Legion should "try for something we can get." The convention asked the federal government to deport foreign-born

LAD'S TRICYCLE CAUSES HUBBUB

WINDSOR, Ont., May 28.—(CP)—There was quite a hubbub on the street corner. Men were gathered over a lad lying in the gutter. Women were on the sidewalks, anxiously awaiting news.

"Give the boy air," someone said. "Can't help him with all that crowd around."

The gathering started to let the man through. What he saw was a tiny lad lying down with his head under his tricycle.

"Gotta get that out lightened on my handle bars," the little fellow said. "Anybody got a wrench?"

Trinity College Man Heads Association

LONDON, Ont., May 28.—(CP)—E. G. Strathy, bursar and secretary of Trinity College, Toronto, is the new president of the Canadian Association of University Business Officers. He succeeds F. W. Crawford, comptroller of University of Manitoba. R. M. Bagshaw, comptroller of University of British Columbia was named to the executive committee at a conference Wednesday night.

Communists other than those on foreign government service, recommended that any Communist schools be closed and that lectures and institutions "glorifying" the ideology be forbidden.

RATES INCREASE

During the convention the delegates agreed a request for an increase in the rates of allowances paid aged and needy veterans. The government proposes to pay single veterans $40 a month. The Legion asked that this be raised to $50, and that $85 be provided married recipients rather than $70 a month.

Li-Col. L. D. M. Baxter of Winnipeg was elected Dominion president, succeeding Gen. Price.

The convention supported a change in admission ritual requiring new members to declare they were not Communists. Fascists, Anarchists or advocates of overthrowing the government.

Taft Favors Economic Union Canada - U.S.

By Clyde Blackburn

WASHINGTON, May 28.—(CP)—Senator Robert Taft (Rep.-Ohio) yesterday told The Canadian Press he would favor economic union with Newfoundland, and with Canada too, if such an issue came before congress.

Taft, a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination next month, said that by economic union meant reciprocal removal of all tariffs, quotas and trade restrictions of any kind.

He and a number of senators were queried by Newfoundland interests favoring responsible government in the June 3 referendum to decide the future governmental system of the old colony.

It is understood that other senators, including Arthur Vandenberg (Rep.-Mich.), Styles Bridges (Rep.-N.H.) and H. Alexander Smith (Rep.-N.J.) replied to the query without committing themselves but admit that it was an interesting proposal.

The queries have inspired considerable interest in Newfoundland's efforts to select a permanent form of government.

Drew Pearson Named Father of the Year

NEW YORK, May 28.—(AP)—The National Father's Day committee today named Drew Pearson, news commentator and columnist, as Father of the Year. Pearson, originator of the International Friendship Train which collected food for European relief, was selected in recognition of his fight for democracy throughout the world, the announcement said.

Jay-Cee President Leaves For East In Cowboy Garb

CALGARY, May 28.—(CP)—Don Mackay, national president of the Canadian Junior Chamber of Commerce, left here by train yesterday en route to Dryden, Ont., where he will address a convention of Manitoba and Ontario chambers.

The city alderman left attired in a western cowboy outfit. Following the Dryden convention, Mackay will attend the United States Jay-Cees convention in Philadelphia, June 2. Later he will journey to Boston, the Maritimes, Montreal and Winnipeg. He will preside at the Canadian national convention at Winnipeg starting June 17.

Stolen Cigarettes Found In Truck

MERRITT, B.C., May 28.—(CP)—Police here believe they intercepted a stolen cigarette racket operating between Alberta and British Columbia.

Officers Wednesday impounded a truck loaded with between 3,000 and 4,000 cigarettes. It was found abandoned in front of a church here, bearing an Alberta license.

The cigarettes were stolen in Calgary, police said.

Big Stamp Theft

NEW YORK, May 28.—(AP)—Theft of some $75,000 worth of rare stamps, said to be the biggest stamp theft on record, was disclosed Wednesday. The theft was revealed by the owner of the New York Stamp Company.

OIL STRUCK—IN TOT'S TUMMY

LOS ANGELES, May 28.—(AP)—They struck and choked in Jimmy's stomach. Jimmy, 30 months of age, was found gagging and choking in the backyard of his home Tuesday. He was whisked to a hospital where a fluoroscopic examination failed to reveal anything in his throat. The sirens screamed again and he was taken to another hospital. Doctors manned the stomach pump and found—cool oil, source unknown. Jimmy, son of Mrs. Avis Cherry, is feeling much better.

York Archbishop Against "Holy War" On Communism

YORK, England, May 28.—(AP)—Most Rev. Cyril Garbett, archbishop of York, in an address to a convocation here yesterday advised strongly against the waging of "a holy war or religious crusade" against Communism.

"Indiscriminate excommunication," he said, would endanger Christian unity and might do great harm to millions of Christians living in Communist countries.

Many Roman Catholics in Poland, and Catholics and Protestants in Hungary and Czechoslovakia supported Communist political regimes but at the same time held fast to the Christian faith.

Only Preparedness Can Prevent War

CALGARY, May 28.—(CP)—Dr. Charles W. Armstrong of Salisbury, N.C., president of Kiwanis International, said last night it will "only be a matter of time until there is a third world war unless we are adequately prepared."

In an address before 300 Alberta Kiwanis members, Dr. Armstrong also said Communism "is making headway beyond the farthest dreams of its supporters and it is up to us to head off this insidious evil."

Homes Theme Of Vote Battle

TIMMINS, Ont., May 28.—(CP)—A Liberal government, if elected in the June 7 Ontario election, would call an immediate session of the legislature to deal with housing.

Farquhar Oliver said last night. The Ontario Liberal leader told a meeting of South Cochrane Local Association that he would appoint a minister of housing to coordinate private and government efforts to meet the housing shortage.

A lack of building materials would not be allowed to stand in the way.

TORONTO, May 28.—(CP)—In reply to criticism levelled at the CCF's housing program by "old-party" leaders and their newspapers, E. B. Jolliffe last night gave statistics of what the Labor government in New Zealand has accomplished with its housing program.

The Ontario CCF leader, who promises 20,000 low rental houses if his party is elected June 7, said the government of New Zealand has built or helped to build 12,000 houses and is still building them at the rate of 9,000 a year. That country had had a Labor government for the last 31 years.

Preparation Only Way to Halt War

Manufacturers Told of Steps
Taken to Co-Ordinate Effort

By Forbes Rhule

TORONTO, May 28.—(CP)—There is only one sure way to prevent war and that is to be fully prepared in every possible phase, the Canadian Manufacturers' Association was told yesterday by H. J. Carmichael, of St. Catharines, Ont., president of Canada's new Industrial Defence Board.

Mr. Carmichael's address was one of several which stressed national defence as the 2000 industrialists went through the second day of their annual meeting.

In a luncheon speech Gen. H. D. G. Crerar, wartime commander of Canada's army, over-seas, stated that the democracies of which the United States was the most powerful, are grouped together in clear opposition to the oligarchies, of which Soviet Russia was in definite control.

STRUGGLE LOOMS AHEAD

"Along two visions and their respective principles, the mutually and profoundly incompatible . . . It appears to me that within a few years, perhaps sooner, either the democratic system of choice, or the oligarchic regime of Russia—one or the other—will establish itself in definite international ascendancy."

Mr. Carmichael, outlining the plans of the Industrial Defence Board, declared that during the Second World War, even with a slow start, Canada's industrial output per capita was greater than that of any of her allies and, if the trend were to continue, it would be as of today, if we were fully mobilized, would be twice that attained during the peak of our last-war production.

The board intends to use the newly-formed Canadian Indus-

Empire Called Bridge Between 2 Ideologies

SASKATOON, May 28.—(CP)—Premier Douglas of Saskatchewan said last night the British Commonwealth of Nations was the bridge between the two ideologies in the world today. One ideology believed in liberty without security; the other stood for security without liberty. He said the commonwealth has shown liberty and security can exist at the same time.

The premier proposed the toast to the Canadian Legion at a state dinner attended by more than 1,000 delegates to the 12th biennial convention and their friends.

Britain was gathering a nucleus of other western democracies to stop Communism, Douglas said. She realized Communism could not be stopped by a negative approach but only by eliminating conditions such as unemployment and poverty, which fostered Communism.

In the field of international relations, Britain was the first to recognize the need for a firm policy with Russia. Russia did not want war but wanted to prevent the reconstruction of Europe in order to create chaos resulting in the continent falling into Communism's hands "like a ripe plum."

Some persons thought of Britain as an old, senile lady for whom appetites had to be made, the premier said. "If anyone feels that way, they can disabuse themselves on that score."

Britain was giving economic leadership in the world today. "We must

SHOPPING GUIDE

No Tax-Changed Prices
Noticed in City Stores

Still lamenting over the Dominion budget recently released by our friend Mr. Abbott, we pause to make comment. What relieving there was in the matter of taxes on processed foods, won't, I sadly fear, make any appreciable change in the consumer cost.

By the time local stores have used their present supplies (on which they have already paid the tax) the austerity climb will have absorbed any change in price.

This, mind you, is the opinion of various hucksters of the "buy and sell" world.

More warm sunny days—and more crisp, cool salads are in order. Salads certainly play the poor alibi in the face—but things are picking up slightly.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Husbands Advised
Baby-Sit For Wives

DEAR MISS DIX: I am one of the innumerable army mothers with children who have to spend every day and every night in the home with the kids, while our husbands dillydally around from place to place.

Don't you think it only fair that husbands should stay at least two nights a week at home in order to talk over the problems concerning their families?

We would like to go out once in a while, too, and have a little entertainment, but our husbands always have some engagement that can't possibly break.

We wouldn't mind staying at home as much, but we get lonely with nobody to talk to. We can't matter how much you love your little children, they are not exciting company.

We love our husbands dearly but we would like to see new faces now and then and know what's going on outside of the four walls of our homes. Can you suggest any way that we can compromise and let our husbands to give us a break?

BHEBDA.

ANSWER: I get hundreds of letters like this from wives who say that they have done their full duty to their wives by paying the bills. They put the blame on the husbands for not doing their share. It is a pity that it is so often a bad husband who is the cause of the trouble.

They never talk to them. They never show any interest in them. They never take them to places of amusement, or do anything to make life happy and contented or fun.

MEN ARE THOUGHTLESS

One wonders what made these men marry at all if they had no taste for domesticity. You can understand very easily why a man who has worked hard all day long wants some relaxation and to see fresh faces and do interesting things, but pretend wife has the same desires.

She, too, is young and would like to go out and all if they had no taste for domesticity. But she doesn't go out. It is a pity that it is so often a bad husband who is the cause of the trouble.

My suggestion to you would be to tell your husband that you are going to have a certain night off every week, and that he will have to stay at home and take care of the children. And since by your resolution. Probably he will realize himself how selfish he is being.

Gardening can be healthful and is good exercise if you do your bending from the knees and waist, as Actress Rita Hayworth is doing.

WHY GROW OLD

Correct Gardening
Benefits Health

By Josephine Lowman

(The Friday Question Box)

YOU REAP WHAT YOU SOW!

This is true in exercise as well as in gardening. A reader asks if gardening is really good exercise. She says that she can't see that it does her figure a bit of good.

Gardening is a splendid occupation because it keeps you outdoors.

However, it does not use the large muscle groups in a specifically reducing way and unless the gardener gives the body thought it may induce poor posture.

If you do your gardening correctly you will benefit in health, posture and figure. When you stoop to take the weeds out, keep your back erect. Do not collapse in the middle of the back or allow the head to poke forward.

Get up often and then bend the knees as you do your work. When you are raking leaves bend from the waist as you reach far forward with your rake. Do not allow the shoulders to round.

When picking flowers keep the knees straight, feet slightly apart and bend from the waist, raising the trunk often and necessary.

When you reach upward toward a vine, tree or bush, reach with your ribs cage as well as with your arms. Lift the ribs and stretch through the middle. If you are limber enough you can even pick flowers as you do side-wise bend, with first one side and then the other toward the flowers.

Q. "I am 30 years old, five feet, seven inches tall, and weigh 148 pounds. Am I overweight?" My husband measures 36 inches and my hips 42 inches. I would appreciate your advice in your question box.

A. Lose 10 pounds and concentrate on hip exercises. You are a bit overweight and your hips are out of proportion.

Q. "Will you please tell me what is wrong with my measurements? I know my hips and stomach are out of proportion. I don't think I am overweight. I am five feet, 3½ inches tall and weigh 120 pounds. Bust measures 34 inches, waist 28½ inches and hips 36½ inches.

A. Your bust and hip measurements are in proportion. You should do waist and abdominal exercises. If you are overweight at all, it is a little bit, it depends on your build. You might lose 5 pounds and take the exercises already recommended.

Q. "I am 5 feet, 5 inches tall, and weigh 150 pounds. My bust measures 36 inches, hips, 37 inches, and waist 30 inches. I want to reduce my bust.

A. You are quite slim. You might wish an inch or so away from your bust but you are more out of proportion in the waistline than in the bust measurement. This may be a question of build. If you reported your weight correctly.

A usual way to reduce the bust is through a general loss of weight but you do not need that. Stand erect, make lateral bends with your arms, pulling BACK and down, and make side-sway downward.

Also, standing erect, do the breast stroke arm movement. Relax as you bring your arms forward, but pull back HARD as they move away to that you feel the pull over your chest muscles.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Premature Baby Proves
To Be Hearty Eater

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Here is the personal experience of the mother of a premature which should give confidence to other mothers of tiny babies that they do eventually tend to equal the records of other large-at-birth babies.

Mrs. A. L. B. "My baby weighed only 4½ pounds at birth and was termed a 'weak' premature.

She writes: "She was in an incubator for three weeks and fed automatically and forced feed. At six weeks we brought her home weighing six pounds.

"Being our first baby we were scared to death. She was, at the moment, on her fourth formula, but gaining well.

"She insisted on eating every three hours, day and night, and it was an hour's procedure. She took a nap in the middle of each feeding and at the end was wide awake.

"She had no mercy on her poor parents, never seemed to sleep but just ate, threw up and grew fat. She was 3½ months old before she nursed a single night's feeding. At six months she slept all night.

"She has been a good eater and a good baby ever since. She was on three meals at six months with one extra bottle of whole milk. She has orange juice, cereal and toast for breakfast; vegetable or vegetable soup, meat, pudding and milk for lunch. For supper she has cereal, egg yolk, creamed vegetables and fruit.

"Now she is 15 months old, eats chopped baby foods and gets some food from the table. I give her multiple vitamins, extra C vitamin and an iron supplement.

"At one year she weighed 26½ pounds and had grown 11 inches in height. At 15 months she weighs 28½ pounds.

"After physical progress has been slow, she didn't roll over until she was eight months old, or sit up until she was nine. She hasn't walked alone yet. She has never asked her to do one thing, feeling that she was doing it for her own sake.

"I sympathize with mothers whose babies demand so much extra care. I did all my own housework but, in looking back, I remember that the worst and least sleep, but all the joy she has been to us. Babies are indeed a comfort.

Our Jessie No. 5, "Baby's First Six Weeks," with information about the premature may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Only Production Can Reduce Prices

Towers Sees No Cuts Brought About by Voluntary Action

OTTAWA, May 28.—(CP)—Graham Towers, governor of the Bank of Canada, yesterday held out little hope to the prices committee that anything but greater production could reduce prices.

"The essence of the thing is the catching up of production," he said when he appeared as a witness in the committee's probe into the rising cost of living.

He declined to predict how much longer the cost-of-living index would continue to rise and said he knew of no way of bringing down prices by voluntary action.

An attempt to reduce prices through a system of controls would involve "unjustified difficulties," he said and the system would have to be more rigorous than in wartime when parliament had the existence of controls in the United States contributed to its success.

Towers told the committee in response to a question that some amelioration of rising prices was possible through such things as the bank of Canada's efforts to taper off capital expansion.

He said that in the last half of 1947 the bank of Canada had urged the chartered banks to adopt a

$50,000 Damages As Calgary Hotel Burns During Night

CALGARY, May 28.—(CP)—Fire of unknown cause caused damage estimated at more than $50,000 to the Colonial hotel during the night of Thursday, forcing 50 rooming occupants to flee in night attire.

One fireman was overcome by smoke but no residents of the building were injured in the blaze.

Three business premises in the basement of the building were seriously damaged by smoke and flames, while merchandise in these other business premises received smoke and water damage. The hotel proper was also damaged by smoke.

Inside Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD.—(AP)—What is Hollywood doing about television? I surveyed the top producing companies to determine what each is doing about the new medium.

Much of the studio activity in stars on television except in news reels.

Columbia and Republic—Watching and waiting.

Paramount—Years ahead of other studios. Has two stations in Los Angeles, Chicago, owns percentage of three stations in the eastern United States. Has conducted extensive research, including color video and rapid filming of telecasts for delayed network telecasting. Permits own stars on television via Paramount stations or couriers. Big plan for theatre television.

MGM—No definite policy; studying the new medium. Owns television rights to personalities and story material, but hasn't released either for video. No stations planned.

U-I—Releasing some 16mm. short films through subsidiary, United World. Requests stars to stay off television now, "since I don't want them justifying a special ad trailer and found good results. Otherwise, awaiting developments. No stations.

RKO—No stations planned; no star appearances. There has been talk that new head man Hughes will make television films.

Warner—Some activity in "scientific stage," but studio is hush-hush about it. Applied for a station in Chicago. Participated with 20th-Fox and RCA in theatre experiment. No star appearances. Twentieth Century-Fox—Has some plans for stations. Experiments on telecasting on big screens. Used video in advertising "Iron Curtain." Does not permit.
